

The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; and shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Matthew 13:38-42

Throughout history, we have learned that it is during the times of evil leaders that the greatest prophetic voices arise. We are now living in such a time, except that it now also coincides with the end of the age and the end time harvest, so these things will be magnified. The end time harvest is the time when all that has been sown, both the good and the evil, comes to maturity as written in the gospel of Matthew 13:24-30:

“Another parable put He forth unto them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man who sowed good seed in his field: But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the plant was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? From where then has it tares?”

‘He said unto them: An enemy has done this. The servants said unto him, Will you then that we go and gather them up?’ But he said: Nay, lest while you gather up the tares, you root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers: Gather you together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.’”

Not everyone who claims to be a Christian is a disciple of Jesus Christ. There are many teachers today whose teaching does not align to the word of God. When Jesus was asked by His disciples about the end of the age in Matthew 24:4-5, the first thing that He said to them was:

“Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.”

There are multiple warnings throughout scripture about the great deception that would come at the end of the age, mostly through those claiming that He ‘Jesus’ is the Christ. But they are wolves in sheep’s clothing; messengers of darkness masquerading as angels of light; they are clouds without water, carried about by winds; twice dead, plucked up by the roots; tares pretending to be wheat. That is the reason why we are told to judge them by their fruits, not by their words; as the old adage says: “Not all that shines is gold”.

There are many so called Christians today who in reality are tares, mixed in with the wheat. There is a great need today for discernment among God’s lambs, yet so very few seem to have it.

Hebrews 5:14 “But solid food belongs to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.”

Sometimes immature believers tend to behave like tares and young tares may act like Christians. However, as they both mature right before harvest, just like in real life wheat bows down while tares remain straight, which speaks of humility versus pride. Whoever you align yourself with, is the one who you are giving allegiance to. It is time to get out of any group, club, political party or church that is not fundamentally aligned with the teachings and character of Christ.

Look at what the tares have done to America; it’s one of the most horrific things that my eyes have ever seen. The enemies of the Most High have gotten away with doing horrific things to this once great and noble nation. They have outlawed the 10 commandments; passed ungodly corrupt laws; they are teaching our children that gay lifestyles and same sex marriage is good and they have gotten away with it.

The name of Jesus Christ cannot be spoken in public, for it is considered offensive by those tares who hate us and worship their false gods. Do you hear the rumblings of the coming judgment? Without a real God birthed spiritual revival, America will become ashes just like Sodom and Gomorrah. What will the Almighty do in the days ahead? Is He going to speak with His voice of thunder from heaven, or will He use His servants to warn and speak to His people?

The LORD has always used those of us who are willing to be used by Him to warn the people and reach the lost. If each one of us will do our part to warn the people and save the lost, we will have done our part. If we don’t, their blood will be on our hands. Churches are sleeping, and our houses are on fire. We should all be on our knees repenting before God in anticipation of what the Most High has for this nation, as you realize when you read what happened when His wrath was poured out on the godless nations throughout the Bible.

We are entering a season of separation, because we are entering into the season of harvest; the final harvest. Tares will become evident in these last days as they refuse to be fruitful and bow down before the LORD of the Harvest. These perilous times will reveal the true mettle of many who call themselves believing disciples of Jesus Christ, but are not. May the LORD have mercy on us as we are weighed on the balance that we may be found worthy. Shalom.
